

Dear Friends,

If you haven't yet heard a bit about the RJC Sisterhood's Centennial Cookbook, Kosher Yankee Centennial: 100 Years of Jewish Cooking in Vermont, in various announcements and newsletters, you don't know what you're missing:

The Cookbooks are HERE!

The cookbooks are high-quality 3-ring binder style with a hardback cover, featuring Peter Huntoon's specially-commissioned water-color of the Rutland Jewish Center. Nearly 600 recipes by RJC members, friends and family—past and present—are to be found within its pages.

Cooks and would-be cooks will delight in the well-organized, easy-to-read recipes and a built-in holder that allows the cookbook to stand up for better "while-you-cook" viewing. Even non-cooks will find something to enjoy within its pages—the recipes and notes themselves provide a glimpse into the RJC's history and are links to friends and family, both current and fondly remembered.

Cookbooks make great gifts, and are sure to delight cooks, collectors and history buffs of all ages.

Don't live near the RJC? No worries, we can ship them to you!

Feel free to make as many copies of the order form as you need for friends or relatives...
